March 6, 2003 -- From International Youth Soccer Training (IYST) News

Italian Training and Tournament Program (ITTP), held from June 24 to July 8, 2003 in Rome, Italy.

IYST provides youth soccer players a wonderful experience in one of the most beautiful and ancient cities in the world- Rome, Italy. "The ITTP is not just a soccer clinic and tournament; it's a chance to truly experience the culture and history of Italy." Says co-founder and President Brad Hendricks of IYST-South.

"Safety is IYST's number one priority while in Italy. IYST staff members will provide 24-hour supervision. International soccer is an incredible opportunity and a once in a lifetime experience and the ITTP in one of the most sought after experiences for youth soccer players" adds Co-founder and President Joe Casciana of IYST-North.

Here is what attendees can look forward to while in Italy:

- 4 hours of soccer training per day with professional Italian and American coaches.
- 9 days in Roccaraso/Rivisondoli (population: 2000)
  - Experience the lifestyle of Italian small town living. Fresh food, clean mountain air, and a great countryside.
- 3 days in Rome, Italy
- 3 hours of guided tours per day
  - S. Peters Basilica, Vatican Museum, Coliseum, Trevi Fountain, Spanish Steps are only a few of the historical landmarks to be visited.
- 2-day tournament with SS Lazio youth in Rome, Italy

The program is open for boys and girls up to the age of 17. For more information regarding the ITTP or to register for the ITTP program please visit IYST's website: <http://www.IYST.org>. All deposits are due by March 20, 2003. Please contact us at ITTP@IYST.org.
